WHITE WINES

---

ASSYRTIKO WINES :

Assyrtiko's most complex, elegant and age worthy grapes and wines are grown and made on the island of Santorini. Grapes are planted in volcanic rich soil giving the wine a citrus aroma with a unique earthy, mineral aftertaste.

Assyrtiko/Sauvignon Blanc 58

"Thema White" Ktima Pavlidis, Drama, Greece, 2015

Assyrtiko/Aidani/Athiri 52

"Atlantis" Argyros, Santorini, Greece, 2016

Assyrtiko 65

Argyros Estate, Santorini, Greece, 2015

---

Robola 62

The noble Robola grapes yield distinguished wines with citrus and peach aromas mixed with smoky, mineral hints and a long lemony aftertaste.

Gentilini, Kefalonia, Greece, 2015

Malagouzia 75

The Malagousia grape is an especially aromatic grape leading to elegant full-bodied wines, with medium acidity and exciting aromas of exotic fruits, citrus, jasmine and mint.

Geravassiliou, Epanomi, Greece, 2015

Chardonnay 50

Karamoor, Fort Washington, Pennsylvania, 2013

Pineapple aromas with butterscotch and honeysuckle lead to juicy pear flavors with hints of vanilla-oak and lively fresh minerality. The balanced acidity supports a rich, full-bodied and lingering finish.

ROSÈ AND SPARKLING

MOSCHOFILERO WINES :

Moschofilero grapes have a gray colored skin and therefore produce a wine that is a blanc de gris. Its crisp character and beautiful floral aroma of roses and violets with hints of spices can be drunk as an aperitif or with food.

Moschofilero/Agiorgitiko 48

Meliasto, Spiropoulos, Peloponnese, Greece, 2015

Moschofilero Brut 60

Ode Panos, Spiropoulos, Mantinia, Greece 2015

RED WINES

---

AGIORGITIKO WINES :

Agiorgitiko wines stand out for their deep red color and notable aromatic complexity. Agiorgitiko's soft tannins and balanced acidity lead to the production of many different styles of wine, ranging from fresh aromatic reds to extraordinary aged red. Agiorgitiko is cultivated in Nemea, where the higher the elevation, the better quality wine.

Agiorgitiko 48

"St. George", Skouras, Nemea, Greece, 2014

Agiorgitiko 69

Gai'a Koutsi, Nemea, Greece, 2015

Agiorgitiko 65

Gai'a Estate, Nemea, Greece, 2013

Agiorgitiko/Syrah 62

Gentilini, Kefalonia, Greece, 2015

---

XINOMAVRO WINES :

The wines made from Xinomavro are known for their superb aging potential and their rich tannic character. Their complex aromas combine such red fruits as gooseberry with hints of olives, spices and dried tomatoes.

Xinomavro 48

Thymiopoulos, Naoussa, Greece, 2015

Xinomavro/Cabernet/Syrah 60

Askitikos, Tsilili, Thessaly, Greece, 2013

---

Cabernet Franc 50

Karamoor, Fort Washington, Pennsylvania, 2013

Ripe Bing cherry, hints of bay laurel and earth fragrances, reminiscent of black trumpet mushroom, dominate the aromatics of Karamoor's top selling wine. The aromatics open to flavors of concentrated black cherry, an essence of oak toast, and fresh herbs that carry to a soft, full-bodied finish.

Cabernet Sauvignon 75

Sean Minor, Napa Valley, California, 2014

Cabernet is a full-bodied red wine with dark fruit flavors and savory tastes from black pepper to bell pepper.
